“Annual History Book Contest”

Lillian Moss, Dept. Historian tells you what it takes to put your History Book together for the Dept. and Nat'l Competitions. If you are a Historian who has chronicled the last membership year in the life of your group, then you should start now on finalizing and submitting those chronicles for judging during the upcoming Dept. Convention; the first step in the Nat'l. Competition. This seminar is open to all individuals interested, to include current Post, Unit, Squadron and Chapter Historians.

History Book Workshops are presented by Department Historian Lillian Moss to provide instruction and tips on your Post, District, and Area History Books.
